Where is the money going?

- The 2019 Budget is crafted to accelerate attainment of the present administration Agenda through the creation of jobs and engendering inclusive growth. To achieve this, Government will continue to channel bulk of resources to structural reform of the state economy and provision of critical infrastructure in Education, Health, and Roads as well as food security.

- Health is a key to enhancing productivity and the welfare of our people. In strengthening health institutions, priority was placed on completion of on-going construction of health infrastructure, ensuring availability and timely supply of drugs, procurement of some medical equipment, recruitment of health personnel and promotion of innovative health financing.

UNDERSTANDING KANO STATE 2019 BUDGET OF SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

“I clearly spelt out the driving policies of this government in my inaugural address, which would be predicated on continuation, consolidation, fine tuning of on-going critical infrastructural projects embarked upon by the previous administrations and to further initiate more people oriented policies and programs for the overall development of our dear state”. “We remained resolute and committed in fulfilling the pledges we made”.

“Oil money has dropped so the best option is for us to focus on agriculture so as to shore up our revenue, to enable us address the development needs of our people. Our investing is heavily in agriculture in order to increase the food security status of the state and boost the sector’s contribution to Internally Generated Revenue, IGR.
