

(10) Subject to any provision to the contrary, the following shall be considered as minor deviations:

- (a) the use of codes;
- (b) alternate design;
- (c) alternate workmanship;
- (d) omission in minor items;
- (e) arithmetical errors;
- (f) different method of construction;
- (g) difference in final delivery date;
- (h) difference in delivery schedule;
- (i) completion period where these are not of essence;
- (j) non-compliance with some technical local regulation;
- (k) payment terms; and
- (l) any other condition that has little impact on the bid.

(11) In cases not mentioned above and where there exists a doubt as to whether a particular condition in a bid is a major or minor deviation, the following rules shall apply:

- (a) where the impact on the costs is major, it shall be regarded as a major deviation; and
- (b) where the impact on the costs is minor, it shall be regarded as a minor deviation.

(12) In cases of minor deviations, written classification may be obtained from the supplier or contractor and where applicable, and offer made for correction of the minor deviation.

(13) Where a supplier or contractor does not accept the correction of a minor deviation, his bid shall be rejected.

(14) At the stage of evaluation and comparism, all minor deviation shall be qualified in monetary terms.
